Players whose parents volunteered get priority for Spring Soccer

I understand that by submitting this form I am only indicating interest in having my child participate in the spring soccer season with AYSO Region 28, Garden Grove, CA. No guarantee of placement on a team is expressed or implied. The spring soccer season is an AYSO 28 Spring Select, meaning that coaches are allowed to recruit players for their teams and are allowed to choose players by their own criteria. There is no spring season registration or collection of fees until such time as the player has been approved by the region for placement on a team at the request of the coach and the player's parents.

Registration Fees: $50 for Fall 2009 Region 28 returning players and $60 for new players.
